1 Annual Meeting of the Council

- 1.1 An annual meeting of the Council must be held. In an election year, this shall be within 14 days of the day on which Councillors take office. In any other year the meeting shall be held on such day in May and at such time as the Council decides.
- 1.2 At the Annual Meeting the first item of business shall be the election of a Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Council. Unless they have resigned or been disqualified, the Chairman shall remain in office until a successor is elected at the next annual meeting and the Vice-Chairman shall similarly remain in office until immediately after the election of a Chairman at the next annual meeting.
- 1.3 In an election year, if the current Chairman of the Council has not been re-elected as a member of the Council, he/she shall preside at the annual meeting until a successor Chairman of the Council has been elected. The current Chairman of the Council shall not have an original vote in respect of the election of the new Chairman of the Council but shall give a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes.
- 1.4 In an election year, if the current Chairman of the Council has been re-elected as a member of the Council, he/she shall preside at the annual meeting until a new Chairman of the Council has been elected. He/she may exercise an original vote in respect of the election of the new Chairman of the Council and shall give a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes.
- 1.5 Unless the Council resolves otherwise, in an election year the Chairman and Councillors will complete their acceptance of office forms at the annual meeting and in a year which is not an election year, the Chairman will complete his/her acceptance of office form and these various forms shall be given to the Clerk for safe keeping and copying to the District Council.
- 1.6 The annual meeting will discuss and agree appointments made to outside organisations, any groups associated with the council (as may be required by their terms of reference) and for any areas of special responsibility (e.g. planning, footpaths etc). The annual meeting will also consider whether any of the council's policies or procedures, terms of reference to associated groups, the establishment of committees or review of arrangements with other bodies and businesses is required.
- 1.7 The annual meeting shall decide on a calendar of meetings for the forthcoming year, to include dates, times and venue (as per 2.3).

2 Other Meetings of the Council

- 2.1 A minimum of three Council meetings shall be held each year in addition to the Annual Meeting.
- 2.2 Council meetings shall not take place at licensed premises during licensing hours unless no other premises are available free of charge or at reasonable cost.

- 2.3 Generally, meetings shall be held on the second Wednesday of each alternative month (i.e. six meetings per year) starting at 7.30pm. A meeting shall not extend beyond a period of 2 hours (unless agreed otherwise by all Councillors present) and the meeting shall be adjourned and the remaining business conducted on a separate occasion.
- 2.4 The Council may appoint a committee or sub-committee to make decisions on specific topics and shall ensure that each shall have terms of reference that make clear the type of decisions that may be made on behalf of the council and the number of members required to form a quorum. Terms of reference may also include provision for the number of meetings to be held each year, the number of members, the election of a chairman etc.
- 2.5 A committee or sub-committee may include non-councillors if the Council so desires and may be exclusively comprised of non-councillors if required, but any such committee or sub-committee shall not make financial decisions.
- 2.6 The Council may also assist in forming and supporting interest groups that promote specific interests of local residents and, if so desired, shall agree terms of reference under which such groups shall operate.
- 2.7 The Chairman of the Council may convene an extraordinary meeting of the Council at any time provided public notice is given of the time, place and agenda for such meeting.
- 2.8 Any two councillors may write to the Chairman to request an extraordinary meeting of the Council and if this is not arranged within seven days of the request the two councillors may convene the meeting themselves. A public notice shall be issued giving the time, place and agenda for such a meeting and this shall be signed by the two councilors in question.

- 3.2 An agenda will be presented to councillors when notice of a meeting is given and this will set out all matters to be discussed. This will include for approval of the minutes of the previous meeting, an update on any matter that was not resolved at the previous meeting and not included elsewhere on the agenda for decision, an opportunity for members of the public to address councillors on any matter not on the agenda and to consider any motions (from councillors) or recommendations (from the Clerk).

- 3.7 Unless included in 3.10 below, no motion² may be moved at a meeting unless it is on the agenda and the mover has given written notice of its wording to the Clerk at least 7 clear days³ before the meeting. The Clerk will maintain a record of any motions received for public inspection.
- 3.8 The Clerk may correct obvious errors before including a motion on a meeting agenda and may reject a motion that is not sufficiently clear until the mover of the motion has submitted it in a way that is judged to be sufficiently clear.
